

IMBA Annual Partnership Program

The IMBA is pleased to be able to offer its "Annual Partnership Program" to members of our association! This program provides member companies the opportunity to purchase event sponsorships, advertising, education, and, recognition & exposure throughout the year. It is an easy item to budget for on an annual basis with one payment to IMBA, and there are five (5) different package levels to choose from listed below.

Each package offers a different combination of items, and we designed this to fit all budgets. Additionally, we are open to work with companies to customize a program that will best fit their business needs within the framework of the overall program.

Please complete the form below to purchase the Annual Partnership Level of your choice:
