

IMBA Member Benefits

- Your interests, to the degree that they align with the general benefit of all members, are legislatively and legally promoted and protected so your business can succeed without unnecessarily burdensome local, state and federal governmental regulation.
- State legislative and regulatory issues and proposals are monitored by IMBA and communicated to you regularly to keep you well informed about these issues that impact your business.
- A communication platform (Member Requests) that provides members an opportunity to ask questions to the entire member database for feedback.
- Annually, IMBA leaders travel to Washington D.C. to lobby in support of the industry at the National MBA Advocacy Conference, in addition to regularly communicating with Indiana legislators during the session of the General Assembly as well as throughout the year.
- Regulators in both Washington, D.C. and Indianapolis are consistently engaged by IMBA, including; the Indiana DFI, the CFPB, and, the Indiana Attorney General's office.
- Your company's training and education on industry products, programs and regulations are enhanced by IMBA's ability to bring in high quality speakers from the GSE's, the CFPB, the Indiana DFI, HUD, FHA, VA, and private sector professionals to local chapter meetings, the Compliance Seminar, and, the IMBA state convention.
- IMBA member discounts on selected national MBA educational courses @ <http://store.mortgagebankers.org/stHome.aspx?skin=IN>.
- Job postings on IMBA's web site at www.indianamba.org/job-postings are FREE to members!
- The opportunity to participate in IMBA's Future Leaders Program that has trained over 150 members since 2015 in virtually all major aspects of mortgage banking.
- Access to over 850 lender, vendor, and not-for-profit members via our on line database as well as at chapter events and the state convention.
- IMBA serves as the contact for news media across Indiana, representing your industry concerns and opinions and making sure consumers are properly informed about issues critical to both homeowners and the mortgage industry.
- IMBA provides industry-related information regarding delinquencies and foreclosures in Indiana, historical information on home values, new home construction, and, additional housing sales statistics.
- IMBA has provided funding and volunteers to a variety of housing-related charitable programs in Indiana, including; Habitat for Humanity, Mustard Seed, Haven House, and, Ronald McDonald House.